GRASSROOT MEMBER'S GUIDELINES

How to get involved with the
Korea Peace Now! Grassroots Network

About the Korea Peace Now!
Grassroots Network

The Korea Peace Now! Grassroots Network is part of the global campaign Korea Peace Now! Women Mobilizing to End the War. It launched in 2019 to organize communities in the United States to call for a shift in US policy for lasting peace on the Korean Peninsula.

It has chapters across the country, in Atlanta, Seattle, Honolulu, Los Angeles, Bay Area, Chicago, New England, New Jersey/New York, Philadelphia and Washington DC. It is a network of multi-generation Korean Americans as well as peace/anti-war activists working together to advocate for a formal end to the 70-year-old Korean War.

What's involved with being a member?

Members of our grassroots movement share our goals of increasing public understanding of the unresolved Korean War as the root cause of the 70-year-old conflict between the US and North Korea and advocating for a formal end to the Korean War with a peace agreement as the main solution to the ongoing US-North Korea conflict.

Being a grassroots member may involve strategizing with fellow regional members, engaging with your members of Congress, organizing events in your community, holding rallies, or writing letters to the editor about Korea peace.

Benefits of becoming a member

- Join a multi-generational network of peace/anti-war activists, students, scholars, historians, veterans, and others
- Learn more about grassroots organizing and advocacy
- Build relationships with your member of Congress and their staffers
- Understand the importance of a peace-first approach and peace agreement
- Develop a greater understanding of the history of the Korean War and factors surrounding its endless status
- Access to webinars and regional events
- Learn more about Women Cross DMZ and the Korea Peace Now! Grassroots Network

Interested in joining the movement?

- Send an email to Women Cross DMZ and Korea Peace Now! National Organizer Elisha Choi at elisha@womencrossdmz.org. Then you'll be connected to your regional chapter organizer and added to the national group listserv.
